

Kitten boom continues at Humane Society

by ELLEN LYON, The Patriot-News

Thursday June 05, 2008, 5:00 PM

PAUL CHAPLIN, The Patriot-News/2008Lady Buffington looks after her week-old kittens at the Humane Society of Harrisburg Area in Swatara Township.

The kitten boom continues at the Humane Society of Harrisburg Area , with 25 more kittens entering the shelter in the last 10 days, raising the total population of furry rascals to about 140, spokeswoman Kelly Hitz said.

And that's not counting the shelter's 300 adult cats, at least 10 of whom are pregnant, 200 dogs and another 50 kittens in foster homes, Hitz said.

The shelter, at 7790 Grayson Road in Swatara Township, is open for adoptions from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays; 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturdays and by appointment on Wednesdays and Sundays.